Great Past Events Since our Last Letter

Our Annual Christmas Party in 53 Commons on December 5th!

Many thanks to all members that brought a new children's book that we donated to local charities!

A view of the full group from the balcony

Our special wine, beer and soft drink bar with happy tenders!

It was a great Christmas Party with help from many DCUV Board Members. These photos include the welcome committee, upper left who signed members in and took new members. The food was non stop and plenty for a full dinner with our President, Chuck Sherman on the right over the heated pan. Photo on the right includes smiling Webmaster Shawn Akhtar beside Ginia Allison. On the right center Ben Bonner, D'18 between his mom, Lisa Griffiths Bonner and father, Jim Bonner.

Other Recent DCUV Events

Third Tuesday, Jan 16

Board member Ginia Allison on the right introduces DHMC CEO Dr. Joanne Conroy a Dartmouth '77 alum.

She gave a very interesting talk about the expansion and plans for the future of the Medical Center

Third Tuesday March 20

Sue Mehrer, Dartmouth's Dean of Libraries is responsible for all libraries on campus. Her goal is to provide inclusive learning environments and staff expertise, both centrally and in strategically located library hubs across campus!

Third Tuesday, Feb 20

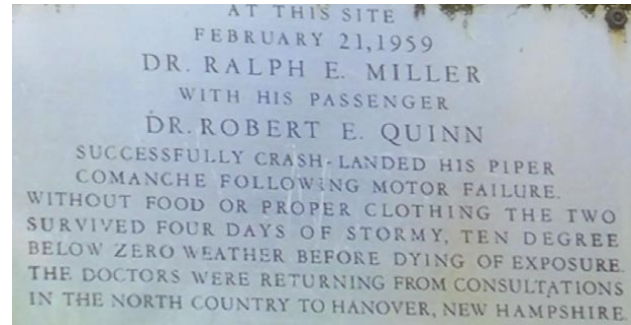

Deputy Hanover Fire Chief and Historian Michael Hinsley gave a fascinating talk with great photos on two of the worst disasters that Hanover has ever had to deal with.

The first caused the death of 9 Theta Chi Fraternity students in 1934. All were found in their upstairs beds. An investigation revealed that a slight explosion in their furnace had broken the flue pipe and allowed gas containing Carbon Monoxide to penetrate the basement and upper floors of the house killing the nine Dartmouth students in their sleep.

The moral of this story is that all homes with combustion heat should have Carbon Monoxide Alarms - not available in 1934

The second was about the loss of two well known and loved doctors on a return flight to Hanover in an unknown woods area.

A memorial plack at the site has the details:

Dartmouth, the DOC, police and other "orgs" conducted a huge but unsuccessful ground search which I participated in. Needless to say the plane and bodies were not found for three months..

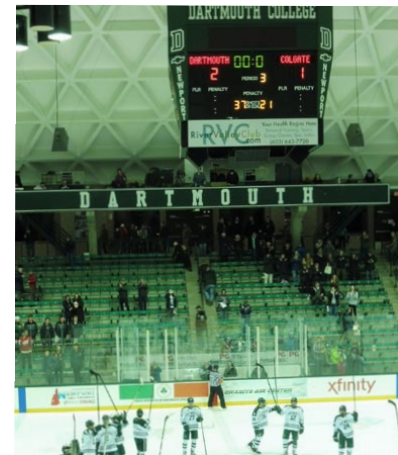

Our Annual Hockey Pot-Luck on Saturday, Jan. 27th,

We had a wonderful pot luck dinner with a great variety of food in the Moulton Lounge of the Boss Tennis Center. Toward the end of dinner we had a good talk from Joe Gaudet D'10 and son of Lynne and Bob (Hockey /Coach) Gaudet. He played on the Dartmouth hockey team and offered some meaningful thoughts on the game.

We then walked down to the hockey rink and watched a good match between Colgate and Dartmouth with Dartmouth winning 2 to 1.

Our Annual Seminar with a lunch on Feb. 17th

Following an excellent lunch we listened to very interesting and meaningful presentations from Russ Hirschler, Executive Dir. of the Upper Valley Trails Alliance, Elise Tillinghast the Executive Director of Northern Woodlands and Courtney Dragiff, Prigram Coordinator for the Hanover Conservancy. We learned about many aspects of Hanover the Upper Valley and how much time these organizations put into technology that we can use and benefit from..For more details copy the Highlighted sites into your web.

Our program which was free to paid members started at 10:30 in the morning with a very nice presentation from Mary Holland about her love for photography and study of wild animals, birds, insects and plants. She also highlighted her book:

Naturally Curious Day By Day which contains 1300 color photos of the above live species that can be identified. We purchased a copy, but it also can be purchased on line by posting the above title on the web.

Russ presented a detailed overview of what is available on the Trails Alliance web site including downloading trails in locations desired anywhere in New Hampshire and Vermont and how to be part of helping to maintain the trails.

Elise and Courtney described what their organizations do to preserve and publicize land and water issues, including easements and optimum use.
